

The Monterey Collection

Transform your outdoor space into a swanky, mid-century modern den of luxury with the Monterey 5-piece conversation set by Hanover. The lounge-worthy collection includes two deep seating chairs, a sofa, a faux wood coffee table, and a matching side table. Borrowing from Scandinavian design, these stylish pieces possess a soft gray color scheme, faux wood grain, clean lines, and simple accents. The aesthetic may be modeled after mid-century decor, but with all the modern advantages. The entire collection is crafted using sturdy steel frames with a powder coated finish to protect against rust, scratches, and UV harm. The loveseat and deep seating side chairs have hand-woven wicker accents and plush cushions that are both comfortable and quick-drying. Made with all-weather materials, you'll enjoy timeless style from the Monterey collection for years to come.
