

Level up your outdoor space with this Amelia 3-piece set. Adaptable to your yard, balcony, porch or patio, these two modular sofas can be positioned together or apart to accommodate larger parties or intimate get-togethers, functioning as a wrap-around sectional or as a pair of sofas with the one-armed sofa doubling as a chaise lounge. Friends, family and friends-that-feel-like-family can all kick back and relax bolstered by comfortable, quick drying cushions and pillows. The sofas are made from two-tone hand-woven PVC resin, giving you the appeal of wicker vibe without the downsides like wear and tear and getting poked by small sticks.
