

Turn your outdoor space into a ceiling-less living room with the Canyon 5-piece conversation set by Mōd. A hint of desert flare meets clean modern design in a collection that includes 2 side chairs, a loveseat, and 2 coffee tables. The pieces evoke the beautiful, muted, sandy tones and serenity of a desert landscape, even if the only expansive landscape that stretches out before you involves parked cars and traffic. The loveseat and deep seating side chairs are crafted from sturdy aluminum frames, coated with a faux wood finish that provides timeless charm and extended protection against rust, scratches, and UV harm and are topped with plush, quick drying cushions and pillows. The 2 accent tables are made from the same durable, faux finished aluminum frames and slat tabletop. This convenient space-smart set allows you to reconfigure the furniture to make room to stretch (either because you're waking up from a nap or preparing to do yoga) and then rearrange the furniture again to accommodate friends and family stopping by for snacks al fresco. Thanks to the all-weather material construction, you can revel in your backyard respite for years to come!
